

Milwaukee Classical Guitar Society presents: Rising Stars

Aidan Wiley Lippke

Kingo Lutheran Church
Saturday, December 3rd, 2022
7:30 PM

Preludium, P. 98
A Fancy, P. 6

John Dowland (1563-1626)

Souvenir du Choulhoff

Johann Kaspar Mertz (1806-1856)

Whirler of the Dance

Carlos Rafael Rivera (1970-)

- I. Prelude
- II. Evocation
- III. Dance

Sonata para Guitarra

Antonio José (1902-1936)

- I. Allegro Moderato
- II. Minuet
- III. Pavana Triste
- IV. Finale

Un Sueño en la Floresta

Agustín Barrios Mangoré (1885-1944)

Aidan Wiley Lippke is an award-winning guitarist from Bloomington, Indiana. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in classical guitar performance at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee under Professor René Izquierdo, and previously earned a Bachelor of Music in classical guitar performance and a Bachelor of Arts in computer science at Oberlin College and Conservatory. He has performed across the United States and has participated in festivals such as the Guitar Foundation of America Convention, GuitarArt Festival in Serbia, University of Louisville Guitar Festival, the James Stroud Guitar Competition, and the Indiana University Guitar Festival. Aside from guitar he also volunteers as a camp counselor during the summer and enjoys watching movies.